Notes to Part A – Information relating to available gas and EOI's:

- This information is accurate at 12/9/2023 and is subject to change.
- Total uncontracted volumes are subject to a final investment decision, which has not been made and is entirely subject to the successful and timely finalisation of regulatory approvals.
- Volumes depend on forecasts of supply which are built on assumptions around construction timelines (including approvals) and well, facility and buyer performance as well as other factors.
- Volumes depend on forecasts of contracted demand at 12/9/2023. Under some contractual arrangements customers may choose to exercise flexibility and other terms including (using MDQ/Load Factor/banking and other rights) as well as (using Take or Pay, extension and other rights) and this may impact the volumes of available gas on a specific day and/or over the 24-month reporting period.
